

HOSPITAL DISTRICT DIRECTORS SEEK BUILDING SITE HERE

The directors of the Washington Township Hospital District let it be known this week that they are definitely in the market to purchase a suitable site for the proposed hospital for this area.

The board members indicated that they would require a 10-acre site, fairly centrally located, on a main highway and with sewer, water and gas facilities available.

A meeting was held Tuesday noon between members of the board and Charles Wauhab, agent for the Dr. Grimmer property on Fremont Avenue, adjacent to the new county building.

The directors had arranged the meeting to look over the site and obtain a price on ten acres of the 17-acre tract.

Wauhab told the directors that he had been authorized to offer ten acres to the district at $3,000 per acre. His offer, however, included but a 200-foot highway frontage and the directors expressed the desire for a minimum of 500 feet of highway frontage.

L. S. Whitaker, chairman of the board, pointed out this week that no site would be purchased until it had been approved by the State Department of Health.

"To make a purchase which the Department of Health would not approve would mean that we would deprive ourselves of ever expecting to receive state or federal financial aid," Whitaker said.

He indicated that the district has several other acreages which have been offered as possible hospital sites.

CHERRY CROP LATE; LIGHT YIELD SEEN

Another late season for the local cherry crop has delayed picking until the first week in June, according to Joe Shinn, one of the prominent cherry growers in the area.

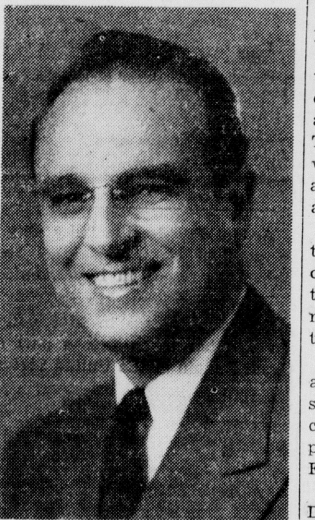

The crop looks small this year, according to Shinn, with only one-fourth of the normal yield. The small crop and the late harvest is probably due to the warm fall weather, and to the fact that crops have been heavy for the past six years.

The bings crop is very small this year, and the royal annes not much better, said Shinn, who grows both.

TEENAGERS ADMIT DECOTO BURGLARIES

A gang of teenage Decoto boys, under questioning by Deputy Sheriff Henry Vervais and Al Martin, admitted Wednesday to staging a series of burglaries of Decoto business houses during the past few weeks.

Seven of the youths have been turned over to the custody of the juvenile authorities. Vervais said yesterday that five of the seven are already on probation for prior burglaries. The youths range in age from 13 to 16 years.

In addition to admitting to breaking into business houses and warehouses, the youths admitted entering the Decoto Elementary School and stealing a band uniform. Other loot taken by the gang consisted of soda water, ice cream, candy, cigarettes and 20 cases of beer.

Presentation of the trophy was made by Mrs. R. J. Mathieson, retiring president of the Phoebe Hearst Council, at the council meeting held at the high school last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Kay Kettman, who served as membership chairman of the Newark unit during the past year, accepted the trophy.

The traveling trophy will be on display in the Newark Elementary School for the next year.

DECISION MONDAY ON STATE'S PLAN TO BUY BRIDGES

Final decision on the California Toll Bridge Authority's plan for the state to purchase Dumbarton and San Mateo bridges will be made Monday in Sacramento.

A public meeting, held in Sacramento on May 10 and attended by a delegation from Washington Township, resulted in the endorsement of the plan. However, the State Department of Public Works asked that no final decision be made until its engineers had an opportunity to make a closer inspection of the structural condition of the two bridges.

The San Mateo Bridge, completed and opened to traffic on March 3, 1929, has been offered to the state for $6,000,000. The original cost of the bridge and its approach roads amounted to $6,560,000.

TOLL REDUCTION

The Dumbarton Bridge, opened to traffic on January 15, 1927, has been offered for $2,250,000. Its original cost, along with the approaches, amounted to $2,129,000.

The California Toll Bridge Authority Act requires that the acquisition of toll properties be financed by the sale of revenue bonds. The amount of bonds to be issued would cover the purchase price and a working fund for the state at the start of operations.

Based on an immediate reduction of tolls from 50 cents to 35 cents, according to the current toll fares paid, the bonds would be retired within 18 to 20 years and the bridges become toll-free.

The legislative act authorizing acquisition of the two bridges specifies that expenses due to toll collection and insurance shall be paid from the Highway Users Tax Fund.

A survey made by the State Department of Public Works has revealed a tremendous increase in the flow of traffic over the two bridges in the past ten years.

GREAT INCREASE

On the San Mateo Bridge, the number of vehicles using the structure in 1944 was 332,000 and in 1949 it was 1,561,000, in increase of 370 per cent.

For the Dumbarton Bridge, the 1940 count was 196,000 and in 1949 it was 582,000, an increase of 200 per cent.

Studies indicate that construction of the so-called "Southern Crossing" of San Francisco Bay, which is being considered, would not divert over 25 per cent of the traffic now using the San Mateo Bridge. The estimated future increase in traffic, based on population growth, would be sufficient to offset this diversion.

DECOTO TEACHERS GET WAGE BOOST

The 25 members of the faculty of the Decoto Elementary School were offered new 1951-52 contracts yesterday by the Board of Trustees.

The new contracts call for a minimum wage boost of $120 per year and a possible maximum of $360.

The minimum salary for teachers renewing their 1951-52 contract was boosted from $2650 to $3,000 per year.

L. W. Musick, district superintendent, said yesterday, "The board voted an increase of at least $120 for every teacher and, if state apportionments are high enough to make it possible, the salary will be boosted a total of $360."

He said that the top salary for certificated teachers is $3,700 and $3,360 for teachers with emergency certificates.

NILES MAN MADE ARMY INSTRUCTOR

Army Signal Corps and is being retained at Camp Gordon, Georgia, as an instructor. Weaver, who was drafted on December 22, 1950, has also been promoted to Private First Class.

SURVEY SHOWS EFFECT OF TV ON STUDENTS

84% W.U.H.S. ENROLLMENT IS INFLUENCED

"What effect has television in the home on school work of students?"

That is a moot question that has aroused speculation all over the country, including Washington Township.

Parents in this area will therefore be interested in learning the results of a survey made recently by the Science Club of Washington High School. The survey, "The Influence of Television on Students in Washington Union High School," covered a period of several weeks, during which time 210 high school students were interviewed by Club members.

The project was made possible through the combined efforts of the Club members, Merton Jones, the science teacher, and the high school administration.

Deductions drawn from the survey seem to indicate that television is not making any serious inroads on home study. Twenty-nine per cent of the students of the group surveyed did "quite a bit" less homework since they started watching television, but, to offset this, 27 per cent of the TV watchers find that, in general, they are becoming "somewhat tired of television." So, if there is a trend away from home study, it would seem to be one that is only temporary; and the consensus is that those students who can be drawn away from home work by television could also be drawn away by similar distractions. Thus television apparently will not seriously hamper the educational pursuits of the serious-minded student.

Other interesting statistics brought out in the survey include the following: 34 per cent of the school enrollment come from families owning a TV set; 50 per cent of the school enrollment coming from families not owning a TV set do watch television with some degree of regularity. Thus it was determined that 84 per cent of the school enrollment is under the influence of television.

The average television spectator spends seven hours and 12 minutes during the school week — Monday through Thursday — watching TV. Tuesday night is when television is watched most (38 per cent attendance), followed by Thursday night (32 per cent attendance). The programs which hold the most appeal for the students seem to be mysteries and serials. Classical music programs come in last, but programs of an informative nature have rather a wide appeal.

Sanitary District Unification Object of Township Chamber

The possibility of the consolidation of the four sanitary districts of Washington Township and the operation of a garbage dump by the unified district is to be studied by the Washington Township Chamber of Commerce.

The proposal for the consolidation of the districts was submitted to the Township Chamber by the Niles Chamber of Commerce. The merit of the plan won the backing of the township group and President Bruce Michael announced that he would appoint a committee within the next few days to consult sanitary district directors for their reaction to the proposal.

It was pointed out at Wednesday's meeting of the Chamber, at the Newark fire station, that there are now four districts in the township, Union Sanitary District, serving Newark, Centerville and Niles; Irvington Sanitary District, serving both Irvington and Mission San Jose; Decoto Sanitary District, and Alvarado Sanitary District. Another community, Warm Springs, is in the process of forming another district.

LEGALLY POSSIBLE

According to the proposal made by the Niles Chamber, the plan would not only prove more economical, but would provide sanitary facilities to areas in the township not now served.

The proposal by the Decoto Chamber delegates that the unified district consider the operation of a garbage dump for this area was also endorsed by the township delegates.

Gene Manning, executive secretary of the Township Chamber, told the delegates that he had been informed by the office of the District Attorney, through Supervisor Chester E. Stanley, that it is within the legal rights of a sanitary district to operate a garbage dump.

The need for a dump for this area has long been recognized by all Chambers of the township but the solution to the problem was never attained because of the lack of a proper agency to acquire the land and take over the operation.

The need for a promotional "Buy at Home" campaign for the merchants of the township was discussed. During the discussion a poll of the delegates revealed that although the majority of business houses in each community belonged to the individual Chambers of Commerce, less than five per cent of those business houses are represented at the regular meetings.

SEEK DISTRICT PARK

Manning read a letter from the Hayward Chamber of Commerce requesting that the Township Chamber join with them in promoting the formation of a district park for Southern Alameda County. They recommended as a possible park, the Vallejo Mills site and Niles Canyon. Allan Walton was named chairman of a committee to meet with the Hayward group for further study of their proposal.

A motion was passed to forward to Congress a letter in opposition to a bill now under consideration to place a tax burden of $80 to $120 per ton on wine grapes.

It was also voted that the Chamber would have entries in the Alameda County Fair parade in Pleasanton on July 1 and that the officers of the Chamber would ride in the parade.

The next meeting of the Chamber will be held at the Warm Springs school on Wednesday, June 20, at 8 p.m.

DECOTO CHILDREN TO REGISTER JUNE 1

Decoto children, who plan to enter kindergarten next fall, or those who have not already attended kindergarten and plan to enter the first grade, are asked to register at the school on Friday, June 1.

In order to enter kindergarten, a child should be four years and six months by September 1, 1951; or to enter the first grade, five years and six months. Parents should bring birth certificates when accompanying the child to registration.

Registration will be held from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the kindergarten room (No. 13) at the old school.

DAVIS RE-ELECTED DECOTO TRUSTEES; 11 VOTE MARGIN

The one contest in the township in the school trustee election last Friday resulted in an 11-vote victory for William Davis, incumbent, over Kenneth Garcia for the seat on the Decoto Elementary School Board of Trustees.

A comparatively light vote was cast at Decoto, despite the fact that the election was contested, with Davis polling 96 to Garcia's 85 votes.

This year's election marked the second time that Davis had defeated Garcia for election to the board. In 1948 Davis emerged the victor by the margin of some 36 votes.

In the other nine school district elections the lack of interest on the part of the voters because there were no contests resulted in a very light vote.

Elected to serve terms on the school boards were: Ralph Logan, Alviso; Wilbert Hendricks, Alvarado; Allan W. Walton, Centerville; Alfred Peixoto, Irvington; J. F. Azevedo, Mission San Jose; S. G. Scott, Newark; H. L. Scott, Niles; J. Orville Leitch, Warm Springs, and Judge E. A. Quarlesma, Washington Union High School.

Mrs. Muller says they anticipate visiting Detroit and Scotsboro, Alabama, before returning home, the date of which is undetermined.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC FOR IRVINGTON CHURCH

"Meet at the church at ten o'clock sharp" is the warning issued to those who wish to attend the Irvington Community Presbyterian Church Sunday School picnic this Saturday, May 26.

The picnic will be held at Alum Rock Park, and each child attending should bring his own hot dogs and rolls. Adults who are planning to attend should bring salad or cookies.

The affair is being sponsored by the Adamites, young matrons' organization of the church.

Jackson, Amador's county seat, was once the county seat of Calaveras County.

I attended the annual awards dinner of the Peerless Stages this week. It was something of a shock to see the bus drivers, whose faces have become familiar to me from much traveling on the buses, appear in regular "civilian" garb. Somehow I had expected to see them, as always, in their uniforms! Even so, when I came face to face with one and walked on past him without handing him a ticket, I had the uncomfortable feeling that I was getting away with something, and somebody would soon tap me on the shoulder.

After attending the dinner, I feel assured that riding on the Peerless buses is a safe way to travel. One driver who received an award had not had an accident for six years! Several others had not had any for four and five years.

One bus driver, who was in the five-year safety award bracket, told me he had done all right since he'd been with Peerless. He'd learned his lesson, the hard way, on another bus line.

"I had the run on a bus line from San Jose to San Francisco," he said. "One night I had a young couple with a baby riding with me. It was raining pretty hard, and they wanted to get off at San Carlos. They lived about four miles from the bus stop, and I felt kind of sorry for them, so I offered to drive the bus right up to their house." He shook his head sadly. "It doesn't pay to get too accommodating to the customers. It got around. I was fired." He added, "You can't blame the company, though. It was during the time when gas and tires and practically everything else connected with a bus was rationed." He concluded, "I have never taken any detours since."

ON GOLFERS

Kenneth Bruner, Southern Pacific agent in Niles, is a great golf enthusiast. He lost some of his enthusiasm—at least temporarily—the other day when someone gave him a golf ball with the trade-name "Santa Fe" stamped on it.

"The ball spoiled my game," said Ken. "It had no bounce, no snap."

Nobody in the party was surprised when the ball, after being hit mightily by the loyal S.P. man, went off the fairway, never to be seen again.

HINTS FOR HOMEMAKERS

WORKING WIVES WILL BE CLEVER COOKS IF THEY LEARN MENU-PLANNING TRICKS

by the General Electric Consumers Institute

Are you a working wife? If so, you have lots of company—because more than 8,700,000 married women in this country have jobs in business and industry. And probably a good many of them face the same daily problem of rushing home from work to get dinner for a family.

You can't have chops and steak every night; the menu would be tiresome as well as prohibitively expensive in these days of high food prices. But there are ways to make the combination of wage earner and cook less tiring for you and more productive of interesting meals for the other members of the household.

Time-Saving Tricks

Use your pressure cooker frequently to shorten cooking time on many foods. Use more frozen foods—baked goods as well as meat, fish, vegetables and fruit. (And, if you own a freezer, freeze leftovers and put them away for "planned-over" meals weeks ahead.) Speed things up and keep variety in meals with prepared mixes for biscuits, muffins and puddings. Perk up an everyday dinner with "brown 'n serve" rolls. Make use of occasional evenings and weekends for preparing foods which require more time and attention—roast meats and homemade pie and cake.

And start a special recipe file of menus which take an hour or less from preparation center to dinner table. Here are two such time-savers from the General Electric Consumers Institute.

It looks fancy, but spanish steak is easy to prepare in a pressure cooker. Served with rice and with frozen corn (garnished with pimiento), it's a good menu choice for the working wife.

Spanish Steak

Tested in the G-E Consumers Institute

1/4 cup all-purpose flour
2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
2 pounds 1-inch thick round steak
3 tablespoons fat, salad oil or melted shortening
1 small garlic clove, chopped
1 cup canned tomatoes (1/2 cup juice)
1 1/4 cups sliced onions
1/2 cup diced celery
1 large green pepper, cut in 1/4-inch strips
2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce

Combine flour, salt and pepper. Cut steak into 6 pieces and tap about half of flour mixture into steak with sharp edge of knife. Heat fat in pressure cooker, without rack, on a high heat. Add meat and cook until well-browned on both sides. Remove meat from pressure cooker and add remaining flour mixture, blending well with fat. Place rack in cooker. Add meat, tomatoes, onions, celery, green pepper, garlic and Worcestershire sauce.

shire sauce. Cover with pressure cooker lid, leaving pressure control open. When steam escapes, close pressure control and when steam escapes again, switch to a medium heat and cook 20-25 minutes at 15 pounds pressure. Remove pressure cooker from cooking well and cool quickly in cold water. Then open pressure control and remove lid. Serve immediately. Makes 6 servings.

Salmon Loaf

Tested in the G-E Consumers Institute

2 eggs
1 1/2-pound can red salmon
3 slices soft bread, cut in small cubes
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup butter or margarine, melted
1 1/2 cups milk

Break eggs into bowl and beat until light. Drain salmon, remove skin and bones, and flake. Add to eggs with bread, salt and butter. Beat milk to lukewarm; add to first mixture and mix thoroughly. Place in greased 7 x 3 x 2 1/2-inch loaf pan. Bake in oven 350° F 1 hour. Makes 6 servings.

According to rumors and reports heard around the town, the "Hamateur Revue," given by members of the Mothers' Club and many interested outsiders, was a success again this year, so the Club closes its yearly calendar in June after the graduation dinner and takes a vacation along with the boys and girls of the school. Thanks to all our supporters, not only for the attendance, but also for helping the club financially, and thanks to all those who loaned scenery and costumes. Of course those Can Can Beauties(?) were there but what a different lineup, for the men of the group put on the leg art this year.

PUT A PENINSULA IN REMODELING PLAN TO MAKE YOUR KITCHEN MORE EFFICIENTby the General Electric Consumers Institute

A kitchen can be big without being efficient. Beyond a certain point, in fact, bigness is of no practical value; it just means more steps for the homemaker—and more floor to clean.

If you have one of those huge old-fashioned kitchens and want to remodel it, you don't have to perpetuate the original error of too-bigness by stringing new appliances and cabinets all around the room.

You can have a well-planned "working kitchen" in perhaps less than half the area of your present big kitchen, says the General Electric Consumers Institute. All you have to do is build a peninsula out from one wall.

Make Peninsula Third "Wall"

The peninsula can be the locale of one of the major kitchen appliances and its accompanying cabinets and work surfaces, thus serving as the third "wall" of a U-shaped kitchen. Or you can have your appliances along two walls, in an L-shape, and use the peninsula as a service bar or breakfast and snack bar.

As a service bar, complete with base cabinets, it will give you additional counter space plus an undercounter storage area. If you choose to make it a snack bar, it will be the popular perch for in-a-hurry breakfasters and after-school bread-and-jelly eaters—and will do away with the kitchen table, which is usually placed awkwardly in the center of the floor, directly in the way of a homemaker working in the kitchen area.

Plan for Playroom

By using a peninsula as one "wall" of your kitchen, you free half the original large area for another use. Turn it into a playroom for the small fry. Use it as a dining area. Or equip it with modern electrical home laundry appliances—a washer, a dryer and an ironer. The possibilities are as many as your ingenuity allows.

A peninsula kitchen is also a possibility if your present kitchen has so many doors and windows that there is no unbroken space along the walls for installation of new appliances and cabinets. In such a situation, a peninsula will accommodate at least one of the appliances. And, if cabinets are hung from the ceiling over it, it will also provide much-needed storage space.

A peninsula might, in fact, be the answer to your kitchen remodeling problems.

With a peninsula as the third "wall" of your kitchen, you bring the "working kitchen" down to efficient size, provide room for a service bar—and free the remaining area for other purposes.

HUSKIES FINISH DIAMOND SEASON IN SECOND PLACE

For the first time in five years Coach Irving Hird's Washington High School baseball club this season failed to win the Santa Clara Valley Athletic League baseball pennant.

Although greatly handicapped by injuries and ineligibilities, the Huskies never-the-less finished in second place in the 10-team league, with a season's record of seven victories and three losses.

The Huskies were nosed out of the first place berth by San Jose Tech who ended the season with nine wins and but one loss.

The Huskies concluded the season last Thursday against Mr. View in a hard-fought battle with both teams fighting it out for the second place spot. The Huskies had to come from behind to win 5 to 3.

LEAGUE PENNANT TO FROSH-SOPH CLUB

The distinction of being the first baseball club to win the Santa Clara Valley Athletic League pennant in the Frosh-Soph division went to Coach Don Wolfe's Washington High club last Thursday.

By virtue of their 12 to 1 victory over Mt. View the youngsters bagged undisputed possession of the pennant the first season that competition was inaugurated on a league basis.

The Washington lads finished the season with a record of four victories and one loss in a field of six teams.

CENTERVILLE CATS STILL UNDEFEATED

By TONY DUTRA

Joe Dutra's Centerville Bearcats made it four in a row last Sunday! The Centerville sluggers battered their way to a 9-6 victory over the Haight-Fillmore Merchant baseball club of San Francisco on the home field at Centerville to chalk up their fourth consecutive victory of the season.

Tony Dutra hurled the first five innings for the Cats, allowing 11 hits and giving up four runs while getting six strikeouts.

Lefty Mosser took over the pitching assignment in the sixth with a lead of 5 to 4. The visitors shoved across one run to tie up the score in the sixth, but the heavy artillery of the Cats opened up in the seventh to put the game on ice. Sweeney's triple and Ed Rose's double in the seventh were the decisive factors in the game.

A fourth inning scoring spree by the Cats was aided by an out-of-the-park homer by Vargas.

As in past games, Manager Frank Mayer's lads were outbitten by their opponents but were able to cluster their hits for the greatest benefit.

Re-routing Long Distance circuits—one of the many interesting, vital jobs for women in the telephone business.

THE GIRLS BEHIND EACH TELEPHONE "HELLO"

Their are important jobs—and they do them well

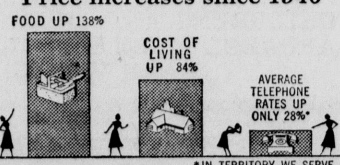

1. Here's one business where the spotlight's really on women. Because of the nature of telephone work, nearly two out of every three telephone people are women—a high percentage. And they must be capable, well-trained women to handle your calls efficiently and serve you well in our offices. We train them, at our expense of course. And they earn good money in this important work.

3. It would be hard to imagine work for women today more important than a job in our nation's telephone service. For now, more than ever, our country needs swift, reliable communications to help speed the job of defense. And it's reassuring to know that in these days of high prices on most everything, you still get a bargain when you buy telephone service. Here in the West, on the average, telephone rates are up less than half as much as the cost of living.

2. Practically every sort of job—from accounting to teaching—can be found in our business. In addition to good pay, the girls have the security of the company-paid Benefit Plan and enjoy holidays and vacations with pay. All know they have a good chance to advance as their ability grows. Perhaps the best evidence of the importance of women to us is that hundreds have management jobs.

Dedication of the new office and service center of the Oakland Area Council Boy Scouts has been set for Sunday afternoon, June 10, at 2:30. Judge Allen G. Norris announced this week. The new building, located at the corner of 7th Avenue and East 14th Street in Oakland, was made possible by a bequest to the Council and will house offices and training center for Scout Leaders.

Short ceremonies and an open house are planned, according to Judge Norris, and all Scouters and their families are invited to attend. The completion of the center climaxes many years of effort to provide a centrally located, in-town center for Scouters of the Council. The building is modern in design and is located in a square block of city park.

Walter Luiz, 50-yard dash; Frank Richmond, 100 and 220-yard dash and discus, and Richmond, Luiz, Jerry Pimentel and Dan Escallado, half-mile relay.

The well-known crepe paper poppies will be sold here today and tomorrow by the members of the American Legion Auxiliary to honor the dead of two World Wars, and now Korea.

Mrs. Florence Graber, township chairman for the poppy sale, said yesterday, "The poppies represent more than just an honor to the dead, they also represent an attempt by the veterans to take care of their own. To the disabled veteran, the war widow and orphan, the memorial poppy you wear on Poppy Day is a heart-warming message of thanks for the sacrifices they have made, and are making again to keep America free."

Mrs. Graber said that the members of the Legion Auxiliary will be in each of the communities of the township on both days selling the poppies.

The FARMERS CORNER

by Ralph H. Taylor

Executive Secretary Agricultural Council of California

SENATE FOOD PRICE PROBE

Is the farmer "cleaning up" with high food prices?

The answer is "no," an emphatic and ringing "no!"

In the welter of confusion surrounding high prices, food prices included, it is only natural that people would search for a culprit. There are those who pin the "guilty" tag on the farmer; probably they do so because he is one of the few factors in the price structure out in the open for all to see.

It must come, therefore, somewhat of a shock to those looking for a price scapegoat, to have the U. S. Senate Agriculture Committee, which has been carefully investigating the causes of recent food price increases, declare that the farmer is not to blame. While the committee took no position on the reasonableness of prices thus far reported, it did express concern about the statements which have appeared from time to time blaming farmers for these increases.

FARMER RECEIVING LESS

On the contrary, the report pointed out that some of the products involved already had been sold by farmers before the price increases occurred and that, in some cases, farmers actually were receiving lower prices for raw commodities in 1950 than in 1949, even though these products now are selling for sharply higher prices.

Meat, as an important item in the diet, is in the public eye. Information gathered by the committee showed that during the past year retail prices of important cuts of beef have increased more than have the prices of either whole-sale beef sides or of live cattle. From early 1950 to the corresponding period of 1951, the price of good grade steers in Chicago increased 17 per cent, though the farmer's production costs increased even more. But the wholesale price of comparable carcass beef went up 20 per cent and the average price of several retail cuts increased in various markets from 26 to 31 per cent.

PRICES INTERRELATED

Again, take a look at peaches. The committee reported that processors paid farmers 40 cents more in 1950 than in 1949 for the peaches in a case of 24 No. 2½ cans. In contrast, these processors reported

CENTERVILLE P.T.A. INSTALLS TONIGHT

Newly elected officers of the Centerville Elementary School P.T.A. will be installed tonight (Friday) at the final meeting of the organization this school year.

The ceremonies will be held in the school auditorium beginning at 8 p.m. and will be conducted by Mrs. Mary G. Rodriguez, past president of the unit, a vice-president of Phoebe A. Hearst Council and a member of the school's Board of Trustees.

Officers to be installed are: Mrs. Vernon Brown, president; Mrs. Gene Ramsell, first vice-president; Tom Maloney, second vice-president; Mrs. John Silva, secretary; Mrs. Bernard Vail, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Leland Silva, treasurer; Mrs. Jack Coley, financial secretary; Louis Cardoza, auditor; Mrs. Allan Walton, historian; and Mrs. M. D. "Nick" Lewis, parliamentarian.

Selections will be played by the school orchestra under the direction of Miss Margaret Wiles, and Mrs. Doris Graves and Mrs. Eugenie Freeman will present a program.

Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria by the hospitality committee headed by Mrs. Vernon Brown, chairman.

NEWARK CARNIVAL BAZAAR SATURDAY

The fifth annual Newark Carnival-Bazaar will be staged Saturday evening at the Newark Elementary School.

Noted for its hilarity and full evening's entertainment, this year's affair has promise of being better than ever, according to Mrs. Kay Kettman, general chairman.

The entertainment is staged annually for youth organizations of the community.

As in past years, the stage show will be under the direction of Harry Houston. The production, entitled "Gay Paree" will have and will feature a chorus line of two showings, at 7:30 and 9 p.m., "beauties."

selling their peaches in 1950 at $1.20 to $1.50 per case more than the year before. Here again, it is the processor's costs which have caused the greater proportion of the increase in the cost to the consumer.

No, the farmer is not "cleaning up" through increased food prices. Politicians and economic planners find it convenient to look for scapegoats for inflated prices. The public, however, wants facts, not scapegoats. Government reports are replete with evidence that exorbitant wage demands, decreased efficiency, and high taxes all lead to increased cost of production. And if production is to be maintained, these necessarily reflect themselves in prices.

Due to the nature of the distribution system, the farmer is less able to determine the prices he receives in the market place than is any other important producing group. Merely charging farmers with responsibility for the high cost of food will not solve the problem.

A midway of entertainment and refreshment booths will line the school grounds.

REBEKAH NEWS

The next regular meeting of Silver Star Rebekah Lodge will be held Friday, June 1, at Odd Fellows Hall, Irvington, according to Edna Hesch, noble grand.

After a short business session, a social hour will follow, with Minnie Woodward in charge of refreshments. All past noble grands will be honored at this meeting, and it is hoped that as many as possible of the past noble grands of the lodge will be present.

Anna Andresen, junior past district deputy president of District 53, and her officers, will also be present to deliver the regalia, etc., of the district to Olive M. Pugmire, recently appointed district deputy president for 1951-52.

The girls of Necona Theta Rho Club met in regular session Monday evening at Odd Fellows Hall, Irvington. A banquet preceded the dinner, honoring Maxine Weisenbacher, junior past president of the Club. Many Rebekah sisters, as well as the mothers of the girls, attended the banquet.

The business meeting was presided over by Eunice Borgwardt, president, according to Nellie Talley, advisor.

LEAVES FOR ARMY

David Priego, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Priego of Centerville, will leave for duty with the army today (Friday).

Bruno Haceta, a Spaniard, was the first white person known to have landed on the Oregon coast, in 1775.

MEMORIAL DAY

The 10,000 new white crosses which have appeared in American military cemeteries since last year give this Memorial Day of 1951 an especially sober tone.

It is our privilege and duty to honor those who have fallen in battle. But a greater duty, emphasized by our losses in Korea, is to help save more of our boys from the grave.

This reminds us that giving blood is more important than giving speeches, that putting effort into Civil Defense is more important than putting flowers on headstones, that devoting our lives to helping others is more important than devoting our lives to grief.

By this we mean no disrespect to the dead. But we know that the highest honor we can pay them is to serve the living. We are sure that those who have gone on would want it that way.

On this Memorial Day each American should do some real soul searching. Our Nation faces momentous decisions which will effect the lives of countless numbers here and abroad. We cannot leave these decisions solely to those in authority. We must grapple with the issues and contribute our thoughts to the welding of sound policies and practices.

The heartfelt eulogies, the solemn ceremonies and the flowers of remembrance are a fitting part of Memorial Day. This is as it should be. Our point is that these are hollow gestures without the daily deeds which give them meaning.

TO THE GRADUATES

For some of the tens of thousands of young Americans now preparing to graduate from high schools and colleges it is the final goodbye to the relatively carefree life of the classroom. For others, especially those finishing high school, it's a matter of choice whether to go on to higher learning or to enter the business world.

The temptation is strong to skip further schooling and take advantage of well paying jobs created by the rearmament program. But however attractive the immediate gains might be in taking a permanent position, the high school graduate should weight the long range factors also. In this day of specialization the fellow who cuts short his formal education may find his opportunities cut short too, unless he has most unusual talents. Economic necessity in some instances, of course, dictates the pattern. Too much cannot be done to encourage youngsters to continue their studies and to make it financially possible.

Higher education alone will not make a man successful. It's what he

MAKE IT STICK

The embargo against the shipment of strategic materials to Red China which the United Nations has approved can be a vital factor both militarily and morally if carried out. It can also prove a disastrous boomerang if it is not carried out.

On the positive side, the shutting off of war supplies to the Reds, especially rubber from Malaya, could have a telling effect on the struggle in Korea. This is on the assumption, of course, that such supplies will not be sent to Russia or some other iron curtain country which would pass them along to the Chinese.

Morally the embargo is a tremendous blow at the Communist countries for it indicates a growing solidarity among the free nations in their resistance to aggression. The boycott should have been invoked long ago, but the economic pressures involved are not so easy to ignore as we are inclined to think.

Having bravely declared the embargo it is now up to the member nations of the U.N. to back it up. That will be the real test. And it is a test which might well determine the future of the U.N. for better or for worse.

Failure to enforce the embargo or circumventing it by trickery could have the same disastrous effect on the United Nations which the farcical boycott against Mussolini in 1935 had on the League of Nations. With Mussolini mauling Ethiopia at that time the League piously denounced him and cut off all exports to Italy—except the very thing Benito most needed which was oil. This hypocrisy proved the death blow to the League.

It must not happen again.

NATIVE DAUGHTERS TO HOLD FOOD SALE JUNE 2

Leontine Rose, president of Laura Loma Parlor, N.D.G.W., announces that a food sale will be held Saturday morning, June 2, at Frick's Store, next to the post office. At the last regular meeting of the parlor, May Rose, past president of the local parlor, was elected delegate to the Grand Parlor which will convene in Pasadena in June.

The next regular meeting of the Parlor will be held Tuesday evening, June 5, at Boliba Hall, Niles, at which time officers will be elected to hold office for the last half of the year, according to the president.

PLEADS GUILTY TO PASSING THREE WORTHLESS CHECKS

Jack D. Pool of Oakland appeared in Niles Justice Court last Friday and entered pleas of guilty to three counts of petty theft.

He admitted cashing three worthless checks totaling $40. The matter was referred to the probation authorities for investigation and Pool was ordered to return to court on June 15 for sentencing.

STATIC ELECTRICITY TOO OFTEN BLAMED FOR STARTING FIRES

"Caused by static electricity" is too often erroneously attributed to fires of unknown origin.

So says Robert Brenner, associate in the department of engineering on the Los Angeles campus of the University of California.

Discussing recent research in static electricity hazards in industrial operations, Brenner said this week that it is now possible to determine reliably whether or not a fire was caused by static electricity, through use of a guide he has recently developed with J. H. Mathewson, associate professor in the department of engineering.

As one phase of an over-all industrial safety program now being directed by Mathewson, Brenner has found that four fundamentals must be present before a static electricity fire can occur. Eliminate any one of the principles and a fire of this type cannot develop.

They are: (1) a generating mechanism; (2) an accumulating medium; (3) a discharge path; and (4) a flammable environment.

Some cause of static fires which were listed by Brenner included fluid flow in pipes, dust flow, agitation of solids and liquids, transmission machinery actions, movement of vehicles and people, and natural causes such as lightning.

"It has been all too convenient in the past to suggest static electricity as the cause of a fire," he said. "Now, with an application of engineering principles we can rationally eliminate or name static electricity as the cause."

COUNTY DIRECTORY DEADLINE NEARS

Manufacturers and wholesale firms of Washington Township were warned this week that Thursday, May 31, is the deadline for the return of questionnaires for the new directory for Alameda County.

Gene Manning, executive secretary of the Washington Township Chamber of Commerce, pointed out that there is no charge for listing in the directory and no advertising is being solicited. The directory will replace the 1947 volume which has been outdated by more than $167,000,000 in new industries and expansions recorded in the post-war period.

PREDICTS JULY 8 APRICOT HARVEST

The forecast was made this week by Lee C. Benson, farm advisor for the U. S. Department of Agriculture, that the apricot harvest would begin in Washington Township on July 8, plus or minus four days.

Benson said that the majority of orchards were in full bloom March 24 and a recording of temperatures for six weeks after that date made it possible to forecast the harvest.

Soil samples have been taken in many orchards and it is found that there is ample moisture to carry the crop for the present time. Benson recommended that orchardists hold off irrigation until the last possible moment before putting up the props or preparing the ground for picking. He stated that by irrigating early there is a definite possibility that the tonnage yield will be reduced and quality will suffer because the trees could run out of water before the end of the harvest.

He stated that the codling and tortrix moths emerged in large numbers for the first time on May 18. Orchardists planning to spray or dust should do so immediately for the greatest control.

Growers planning to sell their fruit to baby food processors should check with those firms as to the type of insecticide to apply prior to applying control measures.

ADMITS THEFT OF CASH FROM NILES STORE

Chester Maxwell, 25, of San Francisco, entered a plea of guilty to petty theft Friday in Niles Justice Court, admitting that he robbed the cash drawer in the Cozzi Variety Store.

A similar charge against Willie Lee Knight was dismissed.

Maxwell's attorney asked that the case be continued for one week for sentence and Judge E. A. Quaresma ordered the defendant to return on June 1. At the request of the attorney, Judge Quaresma indicated that the sentence would be a $200 fine or 90 days in jail.

Your P. G. and E. rates—lower today than in 1940!

Despite an 87% increase in the cost of living since 1940, your P. G. and E. rates are lower today than 10 years ago. In fact, they are among the very lowest in the nation. Why do your gas and electricity cost less? Because: 1. The more you use the less you pay for additional gas and electricity. And today you use nearly twice as much as you did ten years ago. 2. Alert employees and careful management constantly improve our efficiency. The savings that result are passed along to you. Remember: The rate you pay is lower, though your utility bill may be more than in 1940 because you use more gas and electricity.

A seldom used county ordinance was enforced as a result of a fire in Ashland at 8:30 one night last week when a deputy sheriff saw a driver park within 300 feet of a burning house. Lupe D. Turner on Los Banos Street. Hildebrand said Garcia was parked within 100 feet of the house, "adding to the confusion of the fire." Garcia reportedly admitted following the Ashland fire department to the scene.

"What are you doing to save our oil resources?"

People are concerned these days about America's supply of crude oil. They say, "If petroleum resources are beginning to run out, we ought to be careful to make them go as far as possible. What are you big companies doing to save our oil resources?"

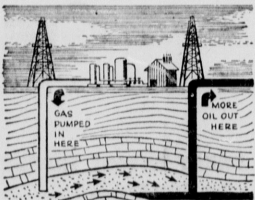

Here's the answer to that question. Known crude oil reserves are actually 30% greater today than in 1940. And in addition to making new discoveries, the oil industry—Standard Oil Company of California along with others—is making each well and each barrel of oil yield more and more. Competition makes us produce and refine efficiently. Here are some of the ways we do it:

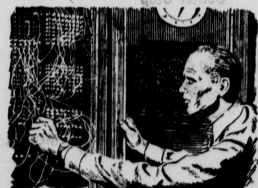

Remember the gusher? Years ago new wells were allowed to erupt. But oil men found ways to stop this waste. And now they extract three new fuels from the gas mixture.

We also prevent waste by tapping oil pools which used to be out of reach. Through research into drilling techniques we make holes curve, under mountains, for example.

Time was when only natural pressure lifted oil to the surface. Wells often "went flat." We now use huge systems to pump pressure back in, recovering much oil formerly lost.

Latest techniques help us in warring on waste. Standard uses a new "electronic brain" to compute best way to drill oil fields for greatest yield 25 years or more into the future.

Natural gas, a by-product of oil production, was once merely wasted. But oil companies long ago learned how to capture it, put this energy to work, and conserve natural oil resources.

And research in refining helps. In 1920, Western refineries were getting less than 7 gallons of gasoline from each barrel of crude. They now get 20 gallons of far better gas.

BANKING SERVICE TAILORED FOR TEXTILES

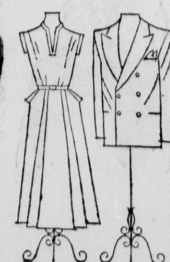

Back in '37, when Americans were just beginning to prefer California clothes, Bank of America offered the textile industry two highly specialized services—factoring and accounts receivable financing. Maybe you've never heard of them, but to a textile man they're the "life-blood of the industry."

Today California clothes are worn by millions... and California's textile industry is a leading producer of wealth and jobs! And by lending $8,000,000 a month, Bank of America continues to play an important part in the progress of this great California industry.

But lending is only part of the bank's job—for businesses need deposit services, too. Commercial checking accounts are vital to business firms, and Bank of America provides them for any business, large or small.

Here is statewide branch banking in operation—a banking service that is possible only because of progressive policies, vast resources, and statewide branch facilities.

Mrs. Laura Whipple Rushed to Hospital

A courageous lady, who has kept actively interested in community affairs for several months in spite of a serious heart ailment, has finally had to give up and go to the hospital.

Suffering a severe attack last Saturday, Mrs. Laura Whipple of Niles was rushed to the Alameda Hospital where she is being kept under opiates. No visitors are allowed, and her condition is said to be serious.

Rushing home to be with her was her niece, Mrs. Jean Van Ophem, who, with her husband, has been vacationing at Ensenada, Mexico.

In Art Exhibit

Mrs. Ethel Grau was among the exhibitors at the recent Hayward Art Association show at the Oakland Auditorium. Five of her paintings were on display. The exhibit attracts more and more interest each year, not only in the bay area, but in art circles throughout the state.

Linda Kathleen, three weeks' old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Raymond, was christened at the Catholic Church in Milpitas last Sunday, with Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Ramos of Warm Springs standing up as godparents. Father Silver officiated.

Guests from Oregon

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Glass of Coos Bay, Oregon, were week-end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Stepp Raymond of Irvington. The Raymonds enjoyed showing their guests the interesting places of the township, as much as the guests enjoyed seeing them. They concluded the visit with dinner at the International Kitchen.

Off On Fishing Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Duffey of Niles are leaving next Monday for a week's fishing trip in Calaveras County. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Duffey's brother. The Duffeys are hoping for a more successful fishing trip than they had last year. It was then that Mel broke his leg and had to return home to limp around on crutches for several weeks.

Newark Party

Peggy Barks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buford Barks of Newark, celebrated her eighth birthday on May 21 at a party at her home. The children enjoyed the usual birthday cake, ice cream and party games.

Those present included Peggy's three sisters, Shirley, Peggy and Jimmie Kaye; and Geraldine Carpenter, Myrna Meneze, Joanne Basurto, Brenda Melder, Pat Serafino, Kathy Samman, Darlene Brake, Brenda Adamson, Jean and Elizabeth Powell, Julie Whiezar, Anita Corchero, Barbara Silver, Carlene and Kay Hersey, Diane Avilla, and Janet Springer.

Trip to New York

Mr. and Mrs. Marston Dassell of Niles are all set for their trip to New York. They will leave next Friday, to be gone a month, motor-ing by way of Canada and down through our eastern states, returning, perhaps, via the southern states. This is the couple's first trip east, and consequently they are anticipating it will a great deal of pleasure.

From Oregon

Mrs. Martha Wyatt arrived from her home in Philomath, Oregon, last Sunday to spend a month in Niles visiting her mother, Mrs. Sara Crane. Her husband is taking care of their two boys, seven and eight, while she is here. "I get all the news of Niles through reading The Register," said Mrs. Wyatt. "It arrives in Philomath every Monday and I can't wait to get it, to see what's been going on."

Under Doctor's Care

Mrs. Leonard Freitas of Irvington has been confined at home for two weeks and is under the doctor's care for an illness that, up to the present time, has permitted no visitors. Her friends are all wishing her a speedy recovery.

Recovering

Friends of Mrs. Al Peixoto of Irvington will be glad to hear that she is recovering satisfactorily after being in bed and under a doctor's care for several days.

FORMER SHIRLEY KRAFT, BRIDEGROOM, ENROUTE TO ESENADA ON HONEYMOON

Shirley Kraft and Hector Caraballo became mister and missus last Sunday afternoon at a two o'clock ceremony performed by Father J. A. Leal at St. Joseph's Church in Mission San Jose.

Escorted to the flower-banked altar by her father, Mr. Arthur Kraft, the bride was attired in traditional white. Her marquisette and satin gown was styled with full-fashioned sleeves caught at the wrist, and a cathedral length train. Her elbow length veil was held in place with a cap of satin trimmed with pearls. She carried a bouquet of white marguerites.

Her only attendant, Miss Charlotte Lewis, wore a marquisette gown of pale green, with head-piece to match, and carried yellow marguerites.

Mrs. Arthur Kraft chose a tan and brown linen bolero suit with brown accessories for her daughter's wedding; while the groom's mother, Mrs. Consuelo Caraballo, was attired in a navy blue and white crepe ensemble with navy accessories. Both women wore orchid corsages.

Returns from Hospital

It's good news, not only to his family but to his friends, that E. D. "Bud" Meeker will be home from the hospital today (Friday). Stricken over two weeks ago with a heart attack, he has been hospitalized in Alameda Hospital ever since. Although his activities will be curtailed, he will nevertheless be allowed to get up for his meals.

Reading will be the patient's main occupation and most strenuous form of activity for a while, until his doctor gives him the go-ahead signal for getting back to work. A book which he recently read, and one which doctors recommend for all those suffering from a heart ailment is "Thank God for My Heart Attack," an informative piece of literature which deals not only with the care of heart patients but with their philosophy as well.

Shepherds Return From Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shepherd returned to their home in Centerville last week-end concluding a month-long vacation spent touring the southern states. In addition to taking in all the scenic points of interest the Shepherds visited relatives in Florida, Georgia and Texas on their 8,000 mile jaunt.

Mr. John Way performed best man honors with Ed Christopher-son and Kenneth Kraft, the bride's brother, escorting the guests to the pews.

Wedding music was supplied by Mrs. Lester Gomes at the organ with solos, "Panis Angelicus" and "Ave Maria" sung by Miss Caroline Rogers.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the Country Club in Centerville, for the couple's many friends and relatives. Among those attending the wedding were the bride's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bruss, who made the trip out from Bellville, Illinois.

After the traditional throwing of the bridal bouquet and blue garter, the couple left for a honeymoon trip to Ensenada, Mexico. For her going-away costume the new Mrs. Caraballo wore a dress made of blue silk (brought from China by her husband during World War II), topped by a white linen duster with white accessories.

Stork Shower

Mrs. Don Plummer (Marjorie Brunelli) was the honored guest at a stork shower given last Thursday night at the home of Dr. and Mrs. James Raggio of San Francisco. The eighteen guests at the party were all associates of Mrs. Plummer when she was a nurse at St. Mary's Hospital, prior to her marriage.

Lupe Perez Improves

The many friends of Lupe Perez, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anacleto Perez, Vallejo Street, Niles, were pleased to learn this week that she has been brought home from Civic Center Hospital in Oakland and is recovering from two major operations. She will be confined to her bed for another month.

Christening

Present at the ceremony were the baby's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Stepp Raymond of Irvington; and her paternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Mary Freitas of San Leandro.

Linda has a two-year-old brother, Stephen.

Local Man Writes From Hickam Field

Jess Corrales Jr., former employee at Kraftile, is now stationed at Hickam Field, with the 1500th Air Traffic Squadron.

In a letter to Mr. Chuck Kraft Jess expresses the opinion of many service boys when he says he'd like to have the local paper sent to him.

In answer to Mr. Kraft's offer to send him subscriptions to magazines, he writes, "I want to thank you for the offer that you made me about the subscriptions of those two magazines that you suggest, but to be frank with you, we have here at Hickam one of the finest libraries I have ever been in. . . . But, I will take advantage of the offer you made, Mr. Kraft, by asking you if you'd please send me the Township paper once in a while. That is one newspaper which I would very much like to see as I would read about many familiar people and in some way, bring me closer to home."

"Well, I am sure glad to hear that Kraftile is progressing as much as it is. It is really hard for me to visualize all the new operations that have been added since I have come in. I am really glad to hear that the workers there are giving their blood too, as I myself have seen here at the M.A.S.T. terminal the countless of wounded G.I.'s coming through from Korea on our 'own' C-97's and I wouldn't begin to tell you how lucky we are to be stationed where we are as compared to those poor guys. It is really something awful to see, believe me."

Localites Attend Santa Barbara Festival

Several local folk-dancing fans expect to motor down to Santa Barbara this week-end to attend the California Federation State Folk Dancing Festival.

Those who are going from here include Mr. and Mrs. Henry Enos, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Fontes, Mr. and Mrs. Art Silva, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Gularte, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mara. At press time Mr. and Mrs. Bill Humpert had not been able to decide definitely whether they are going or not.

The couples will leave Saturday morning to return Sunday night.

Niles Woman to Marry on June 9

It will be a June 9 wedding for Mrs. Souza Coelho of Niles and Oswald Pacheco of Monterey. Mr. Pacheco is a retired farmer.

Mrs. Coelho, who lives with her daughter, Mrs. D. A. Rose on Second Street, Niles, has resided here for 26 years.

After their wedding the couple will live in Monterey.

Several friends and relatives plan to go down to Salinas for the ceremony.

Mrs. Harvey Braun of Centerville has been among those on the sick list. Having been in bed for a week, she is on the verge of being put back on the active list again.

SCOUTS PREPARE
FOR JUNE 2 CAMP

Fred Duffie, Niles, chairman of the Southern District Boy Scout Camping and Activities Committee, announced this week that all troops are preparing for the first big camp event of the year.

The Southern District Camporee will be held June 2 and 3 at Rancho Los Mochos, 19 miles east of Livermore. About 30 troops and 400 Scouts will participate in the two-day camp.

In order that the Camporee present a challenge in camping skill to each Scout, patrol and troop, some standards have been set and the Scouts will rate themselves on whether or not they have met those standards.

During the Saturday afternoon activities period Scout skill competitions will be set up around the central field. As patrols enter the activities area they will have their choice of many events in which they can try their skill.

The following local troops have chosen to sponsor the following events: Niles 2, sense training; Centerville, balancing; Irvington, bandages; Newark, undressing relay; Warm Springs, obstacle course; Niles 1, hand signals, and Decoto, observation and memory.

The Livermore Ministerial Union will have a pastor in camp to conduct Protestant services Sunday morning. The diocesan chaplain has been asked to provide Catholic mass in camp Sunday morning.

Local Scout leaders who will assist Duffie during the camp are Kenneth Sage, Phil Sousa, Gus Robertson and Wallace Pond.

INFANT SUCCUMBS

Funeral services were held at the Berge Mortuary Company's parlors in Niles on Tuesday afternoon for Mark Leslie Burns, 16-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Burns of Centerville.

The infant was stricken Sunday and rushed to a Hayward hospital where he succumbed the following day.

Burial was at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Hayward.

BLOOD DONORS HERE
GIVE GENEROUSLY

Ninety-six pints of blood were contributed by Washington Township residents at last Monday's blood bank, according to Mrs. W. L. McWhirter, blood donor chairman. "It was very gratifying," she said, "and I am very proud of this area. For the percentage of population we are ahead of any other place, including San Francisco and Oakland."

She added that the local industries have been especially cooperative.

Her one disappointment came in the fact that many who make appointments fail to keep them. "If they would only notify us if they have to cancel an appointment, it would certainly facilitate things," she said.

TOYON LUNCHEON
OPEN TO PUBLIC

The annual spring garden party of the Toyon Branch of Children's Hospital will be held tomorrow (Saturday) at the Old Adobe at the California Nursery.

Always well patronized, the affair this year promises to be better than ever, as there will be many features in addition to the home-cooked luncheon, which always draws a big crowd—business men as well as the ladies. The price of the luncheon is only $1.25, and 75 cents for children. Serving starts at twelve noon.

Emily Jane Scott was named president of the Girls' League, along with the following staff of officers: Carolyn Rogers, vice-president; Jewel Roy, secretary, and Lucinda Low, treasurer.

Elizabeth Flores was named editor of the school's year book.

ROTARIANS' WIVES TO DINE THURSDAY

Wives of Niles Rotarians who have voiced the complaint, "Why, my husband didn't tell me anything about a ladies' luncheon," had better put this notice up in a conspicuous place so their husbands will be reminded to invite them.

The ladies' luncheon is set for next Thursday, May 31. There will be a special program honoring the ladies. Yadizalli Sriramamurti, an electrical engineering student from India, studying at Berkeley, will be the main speaker.

In addition, the male quartet from the high school will give several vocal selections.

HOME Garden

Garden Editor Relates Grape Girdle Story

One of the most frequently asked questions coming from the home gardener concerns the care of grapes. It usually goes something like this: "The vine covers a whole pergola, why doesn't it bear?" "How shall I prune it?" Generally, the questioner doesn't know the variety and believes the vine never has been pruned.

Aware of the fact that the California grape industry is far advanced in scientific practice, we pass on our bit of information to the "one vine" grower. On the basis of general information we also feel we should include the no-vine grower. Since the Padres planted the first vine of "European" grapes at Mission San Diego in the 15th century, the whole show has been Californian, with the exception of the comparatively small percentage of "American" grapes grown in the eastern states.

The variety planted centuries ago by the early Padres is a black wine grape still grown under the name "Mission." The vine is a vigorous grower and seems to thrive in the warmer zones.

Of the three main purposes for which grapes are grown: wine, raisins, and table grapes, you and I are mainly interested in the grape grown for the fresh fruit.

The usual practice is to start grapes from cuttings. These cuttings are taken in the dormant season from plump, mature canes up to one-half inch in diameter. The cuttings are made a foot over a foot long with a lower cut just below a bud. Planted immediately in the nursery rows the two top buds are left above the soil level. The vines are ready to set out the following winter.

Disease-Resistant Stock
In some sections disease-resistant rootstock is grown in this way and later budded to the desired variety in the vineyard. Although grapes are successfully grown over a large portion of the state each area or climatic zone usually produces those varieties best suited to its location.

The Lodi area is known for its Tokays; Mendocino, Napa, for its fine wine grapes, while the warmer areas of southern San Joaquin are famous for raisins and choice table grapes.

to the trunk. Hence is often grown as a shrub with the trunk of the mature vine requiring no support or trellising. The pruning pattern then allows only a short "spur" of fruiting wood on the several mature branches of the "head-pruned" vine. This is the generally accepted system for the wine vineyard of the coastal areas.

Fruit Setting
So far it seems simple enough—but we have only confined ourselves to the immediate problem of fruit setting. Nourishment for the entire vine, including the fruit, is dependent on the leaf area available to function during the growing season. In good years many vineyards are thinned by removing a portion of the cluster after the fruit has set.

Pergola Grapes
Guess we'd better get back to that pergola before we learn more than we really want to know about grape vines. In order to cover an arbor and get fruit as well—the trunk is merely grown in the vineyard height than in the vineyard. This is accomplished by a judicious pruning of the lateral growth coming from the trunk below the point where the head is formed. From here on the treatment is the same as the vineyard—care pruning for Thompson type, spur-prune for Tokay, Muscat, etc. But best of all observe what the local vineyardist, if any, does to his vines.

Girdle Story
Ever hear the girdle story? We've never seen it in print—but we'll take a chance! Here's how it's supposed to have started. A Sicilian vineyardist tethered his goat to the trunk of a vine. In circling the vine the goat's chain removed a complete girdle of bark and the crop that season was composed of enormous berries! All we know is that large table grapes are produced in California vineyards by removing a complete circle of bark from the trunk or main canes—soon after the fruit has set. Goats and succulent grape shoots!—Hm, those foreign goats!

Rice Growing in California...

rice is elevated to a paddy mill, thin coats of by-product, which is known as polish.

Rice polish is composed of 94 per cent digestible nutrients with an extremely high vitamin content, and while it is in great demand as an ingredient for livestock feeds, it is such a rich source of vitamins that it will soon be used exclusively for human consumption.

Recently medical science has discovered that rice polish is extremely effective in the treatment of nervous disorders, neuritis and arthritis.

After the polishing process, the rice is known in the trade as clean rice.

In the milling process, some of the rice grains are broken. The perfect "unbroken" grains are called "head rice." The partially broken grains are called "screenings" and the smaller particles are classified as "brewers rice," used by many brewing breweries in making premium quality beer.

To simplify the grading and to separate the various classifications mentioned above in order that a premium price can be received for their product, the mill runs the clean rice through a series of separators and graders.

As a final step the graded rice is sacked, automatically weighed and sewed into 100 pound sacks known to the trade as a "pocket" which is the miller's unit of sale.

ations and the availability of water.

High Area Yield
California, now one of the four rice growing states, started rice production in 1912 after it was determined that climatic and soil conditions were suitable for the production of early to late maturing rice.

California's seed rice by airplane. Rice growing is almost as old as time but it took California ingenuity to plant this crop from the air and introduce improved methods of fertilization and cultivation which have increased the yield in the Golden State many fold.

Sowing of the great California rice crop is now nearly completed, a crop which comprises 100,000 to 150,000 acres from 1918 to 1941 and in 1949 hit almost three hundred thousand acres or a total production of twenty-two million bushels of rough (paddy) rice. This year the total planting is expected to exceed 1949 by 25,000 acres, while this year's yield will be dependent upon climatic conditions.

Summer Dictates

Frothiest Designs For Darling Daughter

By HELEN WEILL
Fashion Editor

"Summer is for Loveliness," so the story goes, and whether young or ageless, My Lady must be on her toes . . . for with the first warm days of summer, she finds that the call for activity is greater than all year. First, her own gay parties, in the contagious urge to "catch up" on social life or obligations

—just before summer vacations take every friend and relative off.

And then Darling Daughter's

many needs, with graduation gatherings, and of course, the sweet girl's life. So for My Lady, and Darling Daughter, thought ful designs that Dame Fashion can create.

With materials that are so sheer and fine that one thinks them but a wisp of gossamer, and then to the greatest of surprises finds them touched by a Fairy Queen. For with all their delicacy, they are for wear, though not for fear. And over crisp shining slips make one a picture of delight.

Washable Fabric

Though a favorite every summer, organdy has never been so sheer and practical as it is this year, in newer fineness and durability. And still the best scoop of all is to know that it is washable . . . a boon to everyone's wardrobe satisfaction.

Imagine dancing through the cool of the evening, in a washable white organdy, striped top, matching stole! The dress is worn over an embossed pique slip, that too, may double for a dress.

For class day, or garden party, what could be lovelier than a dress of pique print in organdy? This fragile dress with low neck is adorned by a huge scalloped collar that falls gently over bare shoulders. The day-length skirt is full and bouffant, with a narrow silk velvet sash

in navy, matching the background color of the pique.

Red Organdy

Another mammoth collar, but of pique style, is in white over a bright red organdy, day-length, again. The blouse fits snugly, buttons down the front to the velvet sash. And the full gathered skirt is decorated with two wide rows of appliqued blossoms. Over a white rayon taf-eta skirt this organdy makes

Darling Daughter quite the possessive picture at the party.

Possibly the most charming of them all, is the dancing gown that My Lady knew as the "magical frock"; but Darling Daughter recognizes as her "Southern Belle," and knows in all

FOR LATE-IN-THE-DAY FRIVOITY—Pleats for spring are key-note in styling of Honnah Troy frock for late afternoon or cocktail hour. Worn over black taffeta slip, full-skirted dress is edged around skirt and deep bertha with narrow black Chantilly lace. Belt is velvet.

For De-Mothing

You can demoth a whole closetful of clothes at one time with your vacuum cleaner.

Place the machine on the closet floor and run it as a blower for 15 minutes, using mothproofing attachment and antimoth crystals for the operation. Then remove the vacuum and seal the closet with cellulose tape for about 24 hours, long enough to allow the mothproofing vapor to permeate the closet and its contents.

For Rugs

If steady traffic over a certain area of your rug has crushed the pile or if small pressed-down spots show where you've shifted furniture, try this method for fluffing the wool again: Cover the crushed sections with a damp cloth, and then go over the cloth with a hot iron. Be certain not to apply too much pressure to the iron. The next step is a brisk whisking with a stiff-bristled brush. Repeat the process if the first treatment doesn't yield satisfactory results.

Has your hair been damaged by too much sun? Try Sun Bonnet for protection and beauty. It's a new, stylish, and comfortable way to keep your hair safe from the sun's rays. Satisfaction guaranteed.
